From the Office of Chancellor John Weispfenning, Ph.D.

STATEMENT ON THE SUPREME COURT RULING THAT CONTINUES DACA

COSTA MESA, CA – Coast Community College District Chancellor John Weispfenning issued the following statement on today’s Supreme Court ruling that continues Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA):

“Today’s Supreme Court decision is a great relief for our students as well as for our faculty and staff who work every day to launch bright careers and fulfilling lives by advancing access to opportunities. Our DACA recipients contribute to the rich fabric of our communities in the Coast District and beyond. We succeed together.”

ABOUT THE COAST COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

The Coast Community College District is located in Orange County and is among the largest districts in the United States. The District’s three colleges—Coastline College, Golden West College, and Orange Coast College—provide traditional degree and transfer opportunities, career and technical training, basic skills, English as a Second Language, and other community programs. Thanks to a voter-approved bond measure, the Coast Colleges are in the midst of a $698 million revitalization of educational and student support infrastructure.
