BP 5200 Student Health Services

References:

Education Code Section 76401
BP 5030 and AP 5030 Fees

The District shall provide student health services for the benefit of its students to promote their physical and psychological health and wellbeing, and to support the students' achievement of their academic goals.

Consistent with state law, a mandatory health fee will be charged to each student to support the student health services except for students exempted from this fee in accordance with BP 5030 and AP 5030 Fees.
