BP 7913 Verification of Illness

References:

Education Code 87781(c), 88191

The Chancellor or their designee may, at their discretion, require an employee to provide certification of illness from a health care provider to support the employee's claim to sick leave or extended sick leave benefits or because there is reason to have concern regarding the employee's ability to do the job because of a physical or mental condition.

The Chancellor or their designee may, at their discretion, require an employee to provide certification from a health care provider of employee fitness for return to District assignments following an extended absence because of illness.
