Lower Division Requirements Information for Major Agreements

Due to ASSIST text limitations, some information regarding upper-division course options and electives may not be clear below. It is strongly recommended that agreement information along with CSULB Catalog Information be reviewed when assessing a degree's requirements. It is crucial to note that the lower-division course requirements may change from year to year. The specific course requirements (catalog rights) will be determined for the student based on the catalog in effect at the time of their first term at CSULB. While effort is expended to mitigate alterations, agreement language can change with little advanced notice.
