ENTERING SLO ASSESSMENTS USING NUVENTIVE PLATFORM SOLUTIONS

Friday, November 22nd

10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Presenters: Amy Thach

Location: Zoom (<https://ccd-edu.zoom.us/j/6173560904#success>)

No sign up required!

As we are rapidly approaching the last stretch of fall semester, I remain thankful for the campus- wide attention to student learning outcome (SLO) data. If you would like 1:1 assistance in entering SLO data into Nuventive, please refer to the attached flyers for additional information. The first flyer contains the 2 upcoming workshop dates; first one is this Friday. The second flyer contains instructions for how to enter SLO data into Nuventive. As always, reach out to me if you have any questions. Thank you for assisting ORPIE in helping to make a positive impact on our students' educational experience at GWC.

HOW TO SUPPORT INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS IN YOUR CLASSROOMS & BEYOND

Friday, November 22nd

9:00 am - 10:00 am

Presenters: Kaori Nakama, Director of the Center for Global & Cultural Programs

Location: Zoom

Sign up on Cornerstone (<https://cccpln.csod.com/ui/lms-learning-details/app/event/3b0ba395-9507-4590-8a14-e10e7e59d1b9?session=a2d14c3b-4e87-4623-a0e7-21a9f3b67644>)

This session will cover key federal regulations related to F-1 student visas and how that may come up in your interactions with international students, whether in the classroom or in other service areas. Additionally, we'll highlight the services available through the ISP to support both you and your international students in these situations.

If you have any questions about this workshop, please reach out to Kaori Nakama, knakama1@gwc.cccd.edu (mailto:knakama1@gwc.cccd.edu).

INTEGRATING MEANINGFUL PRACTICES TO AMPLIFY COURSE TEACHING (IMPACT) PROFESSIONAL LEARNING SERIES (FORMALLY KNOWN AS CANVAS LEVEL 2 TRAINING)

RSI PART 2 - HOW I LEARNED TO STOP WORRYING AND LOVE RSI

Friday, November 15th

1:00 - 3:00 pm

Presenters: Dr. Jason Sheley

Sign up on Cornerstone (<https://cccpln.csod.com/ui/lms-learning-details/app/event/4a4e4b39-a017-4dcb-a86f-92e385734f72?session=82074bf5-ba50-4159-bd79-8da5a658e03b>)

Please join us for an interactive workshop that will help all faculty understand and enhance Regular and Substantive Interaction (RSI) in their distance education courses. We will look at the legal definitions of RSI and discuss what counts and what does not count towards substantive interactions. We will then discuss various strategies for promoting great interaction in our Canvas shells. We will also learn how to put theory into practice and build some great activities during the session.

RSI PART 1 - FROM REGULATION TO PRACTICE: IMPLEMENTING EFFECTIVE RSI

Thursday, November 14th

9:00 to 10:00 am

Presenters: Dr. Jennifer Kalfsbeek:Goetz, VPI

Locations: Zoom

Sign up on Cornerstone (<https://cccpln.csod.com/ui/lms-learning-details/app/event/4a4e4b39-a017-4dcb-a86f-92e385734f72?session=54339774-6395-4b7b-b9a0-69ddb90dda32>)

This workshop will provide a comprehensive overview of the key regulations governing Regular Substantive Interaction (RSI) in distance education, with a focus on ACCJC accreditation standards and Title 5 requirements. We will begin by exploring these regulations in detail, ensuring participants understand the legal and accreditation obligations for RSI. Faculty will then discuss what has worked for them on their own RSI journey. Participants should come to the session ready to share their ideas, best practices, and engage in rich discussion and Q&A centered on RSI to ensure participants have a clear understanding of the relevant laws and regulations, effective practices, and the tools and programs available.
