

space inventory

The 2019 Space Inventory Report was used as the basis for the analysis of space. This report is updated annually and reported to the Chancellor's Office to reflect the current usage of facilities and space on campus. The table on the right includes a summary of the categories of space on GWC and their respective totals.

It is important to note that the Space Inventory report includes all facilities on campus that are in use, including temporary facilities.