

National HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

9.15 | 2pm - 3pm

Ancient Homelands: Indigenous Music of North, Central and South America

In Person (Student Services Center) + Online

Martin Espino will be presenting his 100% interactive program where you'll be able to learn and sing along in ancient languages of the Americas and play native percussions.

10.6 | 4pm - 5:30pm

Honoring Our Dead: Learn How to Create Your Own Altar

Online

Dia de los Muertos is, in essence, a healing celebration of life that offers an opportunity for shared healing and a profound understanding of our interconnectedness and resilience while also offering a spiritual restoration. Join us to learn about the history of Dia de los Muertos and how to build an altar.

10.12 | 4:30pm - 5:30pm

Show me the Money! Financial Aid Literacy Workshop

Online

Join the Coastline Financial Aid Office and Career Center to discuss how to pay for college using State and Federal Grants along with other financial resources available to you. Family welcome too!

10.13 | 2:30pm - 3:30pm

Dancing through the Resilience: Rhythms of Cuba with Kati Hernandez

In-Person (Westminster-Le Jao Campus) + Online

Witness a demonstration of the inseparable relationship between songs, rhythms and dance and learn the intertwining history and cultural aspects of Afro-Cuban dances that has been preserved through generations.

10.15 | All Day

Latinx Leads Student Leadership Conference

Online

The Latinx Leads Student Leadership Conference is the largest national gathering of Latinx student leaders and campus-based advisors to address the most critical topics of diversity and social justice challenging our Latinx community within colleges and universities. There is a registration fee and space is extremely limited for this event - please contact Leighia Fleming at lfleming5@coastline.edu if interested in attending.

SCAN CODE

to visit the event page for more details including registration information, zoom links, and more!

